This workshop is part of the Circular Economy Beacons project (co-funded by EIT Climate-KIC) that aims to build an eco-system for circular, climate-related innovation that catalyzes systemic transition in sequences from experiment through collaboration to implementation. Circular Economy Beacons is led by Cirecon - Circular Economy Services, ATHENA Research and Innovation Center, Wuppertal Institute for Climate, Environment and Energy, Cleantech Bulgaria, Timis Chamber of Commerce, Industry and Agriculture and Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Serbia.

The workshop tackles the following objectives:

- Provide expertise for municipalities to support fast knowledge and practice distribution on cutting edge circular solutions.
- Support circular innovation adoption
- Support best-practice and metric driven policymaking for low-carbon, systemic CE catalyzation
- Guide regional supply chains through circular transition

The training consists of two major parts. In the first part in 2021, you will be introduced in the Circular Economy approach. In the second part (2022), we work together on a project to increase the positive impact of circularity throughout the region in a collaborative way.
